

Wedding Party Announcements

Wedding:

Typically the Grandparents, Parents, wedding party, ringbearers/flowergirls, best man/maid then bride and groom – in that order. But it can and should be in any order you desire! For Grandparents and Parents you don't have to put "escorted by" and you can change this document to suit your own liking. Provide as much or as little description of the people involved as you'd like. I will contact you for any pronunciations with which I need help ☺! Please send this doc back no less than one month prior to your wedding.
